Mrs. J. T. Adams

Charenton,

Mississippi.

June 30th 1918.

My dearest Mother,

I am feeling fine to-night as the regiment celebrated an annual anniversary and we had some fine speeches. The regiment is going strong. We are now special selected combat troops known as shock troops. We will get some wonderful experiences.

I am very happy and send my heart full of love to each one of you.

Always & forever
your loving son
Alfred J. Williams
